Miss D. Weston,

Care of Dr Munsle

Northampton

Mass

MS. A. 9.3 (A. 878)

Monday Evening, 15th

Dear D. I write to ask where the Autographs are. Write at once & let us for we came remember & come join them. All the old things are arranged. The Bells a binding. The Pans, Glasgow, Bristol & Penn Steele books are as true trust to come from the C. H. tomorrow. It will be hard work to mark them but we trust to get through. Bristol copies marked.

MS. A. 9. 2. 19. 272

I see there is a case on board the last Steamer to Wanes "R. W. Winton" What is it? The trunk comes from Paris & Henry the things seem saleable & in fair all our things seem good. I fear a little about Tenders but we shall see. We have had a very nice time at Mrs Haneys. Nothing has been omitted (but tea) to make us comfortable.
We go to Mrs Reed. The near

If you on your way from N. G. to N. via the Washington. We have as yet had no letter from you & she must be lost.
This afternoon I had a few lines from Wyman.
They are much as usual. Aunt M. spoke of hearing from you. I expect to hear from you tomorrow. As soon as we can a little petite we will send the precious letter. I am so tempest hoped with the fair that the [illegible] shall do very well I cannot tell that Wellington have come up to the work & will wind as like the Hall.

Every moment is occupied that you need have no anxiety about us; we are well & firm in mind.
Love to W. as soon as I hear from you I shall send the accounts. I believe the bottle is £15.69.

Yours ever
A. W. W.
